Announcing the first Super Session Speakers!

A New Space Focus in the Post-Pandemic World

AIAC is pleased to announce the first Super Session as part of THRUST: The force of the Canadian industry, AIAC's exciting three-day virtual conference that will connect Canada's aerospace industry with top political leaders, government decision-makers and industry leaders from Canada and around the world.

Charles Beames, Executive Chairman of York Space Systems, will be joined by Rick Pitre, Brigadier-General (Ret'd) and AIAC's Special Advisor on Space for a presentation and discussion informed by their decades long experience across the space and military industries.

Registration and More Speaker Announcements Coming Soon!

Registration for THRUST: The force of the Canadian industry, will be opening soon. Stay tuned for further updates to ensure you secure your spot.

THRUST will focus on the strength and resiliency of this strategic industry, with exciting sessions on leading edge topics such as: Environmental Sustainability; the Future of Propulsion; Opportunities For Space; Defence Procurement; Canada's political landscape; and much more.

On March 23-25, join us in showcasing the strength and resiliency of Canada's aerospace industry.
