Join Manitoba Aerospace and make a difference for Indigenous people

Are you an Indigenous person who is interested in education and career development? Do you want to work with some of the leading aerospace companies in Manitoba? Do you enjoy connecting with people and helping them achieve their goals?

If so, Manitoba Aerospace has an exciting opportunity for you! We are a not-for-profit organization that works with the local aerospace industry to help develop a skilled workforce. In order to achieve that, we partner with Indigenous organizations to help address the need for qualified workers. We believe that diversity and inclusion are essential for the continued success of the sector.

We are looking for a motivated Indigenous Recruitment Coordinator to join our team. You will be responsible for recruiting and retaining Indigenous candidates for training programs that can lead to careers in the local aerospace and aviation industries.

You will work in partnership with Neeginan Education, Training and Employment Services, Inc. (NETES) to develop and implement recruitment strategies, provide support services to trainees/employees, raise awareness of the aerospace industry among the Indigenous community, and promote an understanding of Indigenous issues for the local aerospace industry.

You will also have the opportunity to learn from some of the best aerospace professionals in Manitoba and gain valuable knowledge of the industry.

As the Indigenous Recruitment Coordinator, you will enjoy:

- A competitive salary of $45,000 to $53,000 (depending on your experience)
- Good benefits package
- A supportive and collaborative work environment
- A chance to make a positive impact on the lives of Indigenous people.

To be successful in this role, you need:

- To be an Indigenous person
- To have a degree or certification in a field related to education, psychology, sociology, behavioral science, human resources, or social work
- To have excellent written and oral communication skills
- To have a practical understanding of Microsoft Office
- To have experience in recruitment, marketing, or outreach activities
- To have knowledge of local Indigenous communities
- To have a current driver's license and access to a vehicle
- To be willing to work occasional evenings and/or weekends.

Aerospace/aviation experience is not required. We will provide on-the-job training to the right candidate.

If this sounds like you, we'd love to hear from you! Please send your resume and a cover letter to wwiebe@mbaerospace.ca.

This posting will remain open until further notice. We are looking for the best fit for our team and will keep the posting active until we find the ideal candidate. Please submit your application as soon as possible to be considered for this opportunity.
